

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are deeply saddened by the news of the recent passing of Beverly Anne Mosby, of St. Louis, Missouri; and

Whereas, Beverly Anne Mosby was born on September 23, 1941, the daughter of Mr. William Earl and Mrs. Arline J. Holloman; and

Whereas, Beverly Anne Mosby will be long and well remembered for her humor, her warmth, and her capacity to love by countless friends and relatives, especially her devoted husband, Mr. Frank O. Mosby and her beloved sons, Darryl L. Mosby Sr., Sanford E. Mosby and his wife, Jennifer, Daniel L. Mosby and his wife, Alyssa, and Matthew Mickens and his wife, Donna; and

Whereas, Beverly Anne Mosby will also be sorely missed by her treasured brothers, Reverend Kenneth A. Holloman and his wife, Aradia, Victor E. Holloman and his wife, Delois, and Elbert A. Walton Jr. and his wife, Juanita, as well as Beverly Anne Mosby's dear sisters-in-law, Carlotta Ingram (née Mosby), Evelyn Holloman, and Barbara Mosby:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere condolences to the family of Beverly Anne Mosby on this sad occasion; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Beverly Anne Mosby.
